

Pilot structure

A bounded pilot is used to validate fit, evidence, and decision quality before larger deployment.

- One operator lane with one evidence window and one decision point.
- Documented responsibilities on both the operator and VitaCoreX side.
- Stop-or-expand criteria before the work broadens into a larger rollout.
- Measured outputs that can be forwarded internally without inflated claims.